LETTER FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Rashaad Sambaba joined Skills Academy in 2017 and quickly rose in the college as his hard work and dedication set him apart. By 2018 he became the COO and by 2019 he became the CEO at only 29 years old. He believes that through education everyone has limitless potential.

Dear Graduate.

I want to start by saying: Congratulations you are all winners! No matter if you found it easy or difficult, by reaching this goal you have set yourself apart. You have proven that you have what it takes to succeed. You have the motivation and the determination to achieve whatever you want, the world is yours for the taking!

I hope that in addition to all the wonderful knowledge and skills you have gained through your studies that you have learnt one additional exceptionally important lesson. That yes: You. Can. Do. It. I want each and every one of you to take this lesson and apply it to your next goal, your next challenge and if you ever doubt yourself remember that yes, you can do it!

I'm sure that for many of you the end of your studies came quite suddenly, I'm sure that it feels like just the other day you made the all too important decision that you were going to improve your lives with education. Now before you knew it you're here getting your certificate with a brighter future ahead of you.

For me when I completed my studies it felt unreal, it felt like some kind of dream, but remember this is happening, you have done this!

Once again, I am truly proud of what you have achieved. I am thankful that I am able to celebrate this day with you. What you have accomplished motivates me and everyone else at Skills Academy to try our best because your success right here is the reason we do what we do. Thank you for choosing Skills Academy to make your dreams come true, we will always be rooting for you.

RASHAAD SAMBABA
PRINCIPAL OF SKILLS ACADEMY

LETTER FROM A DIRECTOR

Jan Badenhorst has been involved in distance learning since 1991. Jan is the founder of Skills Academy, College SA, Bellview & Matric College. He believes in changing education to make it accessible to those left behind (students who never completed school, adults & working individuals).
Per Aspera Ad Astra

Dear students, colleagues, family and friends

Let me start by congratulating the graduates. You, and those around you know how much hard work and commitment it took to arrive at this wonderful occasion.

I want you to pause and look at the world around you. Everything you see has been built and created by people just like you. The computer or phone you are using to watch this ceremony has been designed and built and improved by people just like you. The internet, the cell phone system, the app on your phone... all these things were thought out and designed and built by ordinary people... just like you.

Do not be impressed by the world around you. You can change that world. You can build new worlds, create new ideas, and change this world.

I hope that achieving your qualification is also a step in realizing that you can achieve much more. You should aim even higher. And you should decide to not only participate in this world around you, but change it. Because you can. You can do anything.

You can use the same perseverance and hard work that got you your qualification to do big things. And I hope that the process of achieving your qualification has proven to you just how much more you can do. How much higher you can aim.

You are certainly going to achieve even more in this life.

In truth, you have proven to yourself that there is nothing you cannot achieve.

Enjoy this moment. This is your victory; your achievement. And yes, you certainly deserve it!

Congratulations, and all the best for the next step in each of your lives.

JAN BADENHORST
DIRECTOR OF SKILLS ACADEMY
